WM. J. BRYAN

Reaches New York and Big Crowd is There to Greet Him

GREAT MEETING THURSDAY

THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND PEOPLE
TRAVEL TO NEW YORK

To Join With Gotham in Extending Glad Hand or Shout of Welcome to Bryan.

New York, Aug. 29.—The steamship Prinzess Irene from Naples with Wm. J. Bryan on board was sighted southeast of Fire Island at 11:45 o'clock this noon. The ship will probably reach Sandy Hook about 3 p. m.

Off the Hook the Prinzess Irene will be saluted by the reception flotilla consisting of the tug Morgan bearing Bryan's Nebraska neighbors, and the private yacht, Illini, owned by E. F. Colthra of St. Louis, bearing a party of Bryan's personal friends and leaders in the Bryan day movement. At Quarantine the Bryans will be taken off the steamer to the Illini, where they will be entertained until the landing of the party at the battery tomorrow afternoon.

Roped, tied and ready, is the fatigued young bovine, and late tonight or early tomorrow morning he will be converted into veal to be served up at the imposing feast arranged by Uncle Sam for the returning political prodigal, William Jennings Bryan, tomorrow.

And it is to be a feast.

Three hundred thousand people from all parts of the United States together with a tremendous outpouring of Gotham's millions will be waiting at the dock, or as near to it as the crush of humanity will admit, to extend a glad hand or join in a shout of welcome to the peerless leader. Never in the history of the country has such a hurrah party been arranged for a private citizen as is promised Thursday afternoon when Wm. Jennings Bryan drives up old Broadway. Governors, mayors, state senators and other official dignitaries heading delegations from every state in the Union are arriving in the city today, and putting the final touches on the voices which they expect to use in the big noise. The reception is to be a nation's felicitation of the greatness of one of her most promising sons, a man whose personality and high-mindedness have within the last year won for him the respect and good will of the leading nations of the world.

It is predicted that in the last speech which Mr. Bryan will make tomorrow night will be found the Democratic keynote of the next presidential campaign. Tomorrow's parade is to be a Democratic turnout in honor of Citizen Bryan.

Colonel Bryan has spent much time in the preparation of his speech and he indicated before he left Gibraltar that it would embody the coming issues as he saw them.

Outside the garden in Madison Square Park there will be an overflow meeting, and Colonel Bryan will make a short speech to the thousands there. The next day Colonel Bryan will go to New Haven where he will make a speech. Friday evening he will make a speech at Bridgeport.

STRONG CURRENT

Encountered by Capt. Houdlett on Steamer Sierra Arrived at Honolulu.

Honolulu, Aug. 29.—Captain Houdlett of the Oceanic Steamship company liner Sierra, which arrived here from Australia and New Zealand, says that during the last two days he experienced an extraordinary northwest current. It was the strongest he had ever encountered, throwing his vessel 50 miles out of her course in one day. He attributes the stranding of the Manchuria to the same current. The condition of the Manchuria remains unchanged.

$55,103,863 Paid.

San Francisco, Aug. 29.—Thirty-five insurance companies out of the 120 involved in the San Francisco disaster have paid, in the aggregate, $55,103,863.22, according to their official record to date.

MEETING MADISON SQUARE

If Stormy Mr. Bryan Will Address the Meeting Before Entering Garden
Tomorrow Evening.

New York, Aug. 29.—The program of the reception to be accorded to Wm. J. Bryan Thursday was given out by the reception committee. The official reception will begin with the arrival of Colonel Bryan at 4 p. m. Thursday. He will be met at the pier by a subcommittee headed by the chairman of the reception committee, Gov. Folk of Missouri. He will be welcomed by Acting Mayor McGowan in behalf of the city of New York. Six carriages will accompany the carriage carrying Colonel Bryan, which will be protected by an escort of mounted police. Arriving at the hotel, a special committee consisting of five members of the reception committee from each state will receive Colonel Bryan. Then will follow the general reception, after which Colonel Bryan will spend the time in informal discussions until 7 o'clock, when he will retire to his private apartments to make ready to go to the Garden at 7:45 o'clock. It has been arranged, in order to accommodate those unable to gain admission to the Garden, to hold an overflow meeting in Madison Square park. If stormy, Colonel Bryan will address the meeting before entering the Garden, and if the weather be pleasant he will address it after the Garden speech. Among the other speakers will be D. N. Fletcher of Florida, Governor Glenn of North Carolina, ex-Governor W. S. Jennings of Florida.

PART OF PLOT

Considerable Interest Aroused by the Publication of Articles in American Journals.

Mexico City, Aug. 29.—Considerable interest has been aroused here by the publication of sensational articles in leading American journals depicting Mexico as on the brink of a revolution, which is to take form at the first anti-foreign uprising on Sept. 16, national independence day. This is alleged to be a part of the plot to involve Mexico and the United States in hostilities, which is said to be the object of the conspirators. High official authorities are behind the statement that there is absolutely no revolution impending, and that public peace was never better assured in the country than now.

Mr. Wellman Puts Off Voyage to the North on Account of Defects
in Airship.

Hammerfest, Norway, Aug. 29.—The following dispatch was received here from Walter Wellman, leader of the Wellman-Chicago Record-Herald polar expedition, at Spitzbergen: "I have decided not to attempt a voyage northward this year on account of defects in the mechanical equipment of my airship. According to the announcement made last winter in anticipation of such possibilities, the expedition will continue next year. My party is now completing a great balloon house and other features of the plant and making experiments with a view to the campaign of 1907. This year will be one of preparation and the next will be one of action. Our confidence of success in 1907 has been increased by this season's work and by our weather observations. The motors work well and the balloon is in good condition, but the car and mechanical equipment will be entirely rebuilt in Paris during the winter. The expedition will arrive here next May and will find everything ready. This year the whole summer has been consumed in building the plant. I shall return to Europe the middle of September, leaving a small party here to guard our headquarters."

Scattering Returns Indicate That M.
F. Ansell Will Head the Ticket
For Governor.

Columbia, S. C., Aug. 29.—Scattering returns from Democratic primaries indicates that M. F. Ansell will lead the ticket for governor, with Richard Manning and C. L. Bloise close together for second place. For attorney general J. Frazer Lynn has a large lead over his opponents. R. M. McCown for secretary of state and J. C. Boyd for adjutant general will probably be elected on the first ballot. Other state officers have no opposition. The election of Ansell and Lynn means defeat for the state dispensary and Senator Tillman.

RECEIVER

Is Named for Philadelphia
Real Estate Trust Company

ACT CAUSES CONSTERNATION

LARGE AMOUNT IS LOANED ON IN-SUFFICIENT SECURITY

Man Responsible for Failure is Frank Hipple Who May Have Killed Himself.

(Bulletin)

Philadelphia, Aug. 29.—George H. Earl, Jr., temporary receiver of the Real Estate Trust company, which closed its doors yesterday went before Judge Andenried and qualified today. Mr. Earl's opinion is that the concern will soon resume as the directors have concluded to meet all the claims of the depositors. Mr. Earl, however, impressed upon the interviewers the fact that he had had no opportunity to get an insight of the affairs of the concern and until he had gone carefully over the accounts, securities and outstanding bonds, he would not be able to discuss the details.

Philadelphia, Aug. 29.—The Real Estate Trust company of Philadelphia, which was considered one of the strongest financial institutions in the city, closed its doors, being unable to meet its obligations because of the large amount of money loaned on insufficient security by its president, now dead. A receiver has been appointed for the institution.

The liabilities are placed at $10,000,000, against which there are quick assets of about $3,500,000 and collateral of about $8,000,000 which is not negotiable or readily convertible. This doubtful collateral is held mostly as security for loans of about $5,300,000 made to Adolf Segal, a promoter of this city.

The man responsible for the failure was Frank K. Hipple, one of Philadelphia's best known citizens, who died last Friday morning in his country home at Byram Manor, near here, under circumstances which in the light of recent developments lead to the suspicion that he may have committed suicide.

Mr. Hipple, in addition to being president of the Real Estate Trust company, was the treasurer of the board of trustees of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States, and of several other church funds, and was a director of the Franklin National bank. Recently Mr. Hipple's accounts with the Presbyterian church were examined and were found to be correct, but it cannot be stated positively whether all the securities of the general assembly are intact.

Dr. W. H. Roberts, stated clerk of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, was surprised at the news of the failure. In addition to the deposits of the general assembly, the Real Estate Trust company had about $25,000 of funds placed there by Dr. Roberts as stated clerk. The Presbyterian hospital of Philadelphia and the Presbyterian board of relief, he said, also had sums of money in the failed bank. Dr. Roberts was asked if he could say whether the securities of the general assembly, amounting to $463,896, in Hipple's custody were intact. He replied, "I have no reason to believe otherwise, but cannot say positively."

Soon after the closing the story was on the street and caused consternation. Hundreds gathered about the building clamoring for information and police were needed to clear the street. There was no disorder.

President Michael of the Clearing House association said the failure of the association to subscribe the $7,999,999 guarantee fund requested by the Real Estate Trust company was due to insufficient security. The trust company, he said, offered $2,500,000 in gilt edge securities, a two-thirds interest in the trust company's building valued at $2,000,000 and $1,200,000 securities from Adolf Segal, valued by the directors of the trust company at $1,000,000. The Clearing House association did not regard the Segal securities worth more than $1,000,000 and declined to subscribe more than $4,000,000 unless the remaining securities were more substantial.

A crowd composed of small depositors reinforced by idlers and curious people gathered in front of the Real Estate Trust building today, and

FOUR MEN ARE INSTANTLY KILLED

LOVELAND, O., Aug. 29.—(Bulletin)—Four laborers all Swedes, were killed at Symmes, near here, this morning. They stepped out of the way of a freight train and were struck by a Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern passenger train. All were thrown high in the air and were instantly killed. George Ross, time keeper, was fatally hurt.

RUTHLESS CRUSADE AGAINST TERRORISTS

Warsaw, Aug. 29.—The most vigorous repressive measures yet resorted to by the government in dealing with the revolution are to be instituted in Warsaw. Orders have been received from St. Petersburg to begin a ruthless crusade to stamp out the terrorists whose activity has thrown the city into panic. What amounts practically to the establishment of martial law is to be tried. Soldiers are to supersede the police and trouble-makers will be dealt with severely. All streets are to be guarded by troops and every person suspected of having revolutionary sympathies will be arrested and held indefinitely. Orders to shoot to kill whenever molested in the slightest manner have been issued to the soldiers, and they are to receive war pay in order to make them merciless in the discharge of their duties. "No mercy to the revolutionists," is the new motto of the authorities entrusted with restoring the power of the government in Warsaw, and the announcement that General Orloff who pacified the Baltic province a year ago is to come here to take charge of the work is a sufficient guarantee that it will be lived up to.

were prevented from swarming into the building by the police who controlled all the entrances and exits. There were no indications this morning that the suspension had disturbed the other banks and trust companies. There is some shifting of accounts among the trust companies, but of no particular importance. It is today stated positively that no other institution is involved in any way with the Real Estate Trust operations.

Shortly before noon F. Warder Hipple, son of the dead president and an employee of the Trust company, alighted from an elevator and started to leave the building. He was recognized by the crowd, and a rush was made towards him.

"There is the son of the rogue who was plous enough to say that he did not have faith in a man who smoked a cigar or chewed tobacco," cried one man.

BANK MAY REOPEN.

Philadelphia Aug. 29.—A high financial authority said late this afternoon that at a meeting in the office of one of the leading national banks arrangements were completed today for securing sufficient funds to enable the collapsed Real Estate Trust company to resume business within a few days. A petition will also be presented to court to discharge the liquidator in preparation for possible future operations of the bank.

Struck by a Train.
Rochester, Ind., Aug. 29.—While riding on a passenger train, a man was struck and killed by a freight train on the Erie railroad. The man was Lester Ralston, aged 35, a son of George Ralston, who was killed by a train in 1904. Ralston was the telegraph operator at Germantown and was going to his work.

One R. Schell, a laborer, was struck and killed by a train on the Erie railroad. The man was struck by a freight train and was killed.

RUSSIA'S POSITION

Mistake to Believe Revolutionary Terrorism Will be Met by Terrorism of Czar.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 29.—In view of suggestions in the foreign press regarding the coming policy of the government, founded on rumors current here, it is semi-officially stated that it would be a great mistake to suppose that revolutionary terrorism will be met by terrorism of the government, which always will be able to distinguish between legal opposition and enemies determined to nullify the law, whether by propaganda or by passive resistance. A propaganda has its own means of struggling, whether through the press or by meeting, but disturbances of order will be prosecuted sternly whatever ideas are professed. The government has sufficient means, the statement continues, of suppressing illegal acts; but suppressing is not the only aim, the first problem being the preparation of bills to be presented in parliament for the settlement of pressing questions in a legal manner. The statement concludes as follows: "Revolutionaries may try to destroy the work of the government, but finally they must fail, as the government cannot refrain from the fulfillment of reforms simply because the statesman or another may be replaced."

Indians Go to See Bryan.
Indianapolis, Aug. 29.—A party of 25 Indiana Democrats left for New York in a special car to attend the reception to William Jennings Bryan. The interest being manifested in the demonstration to be given William J. Bryan at Louisville on Sept. 12, caused many Indiana Democrats to cancel arrangements to go to Louisville and instead go to New York.

Strikers Destroying Mines.
Santo Domingo, San Aug. 29.—The strikers at Santo Domingo are destroying the mines and the strikers are destroying the mines and the strikers are destroying the mines.

Rev. D. W. Kerr's Son, Says the Young Woman Completely Bynotized
His Parents.

Dayton, O., Aug. 29.—Facts have been disclosed here indicating that a woman about 25 years of age giving the name of Miss Bessie Rice, and claiming Baltimore as her home, is emulating the example of Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, and differing from her only in the measure of success she has accomplished. On June 25, Miss Rice made her debut in this city at the home of Rev. D. W. Kerr, the secretary of the Christian and missionary alliance, having come from Columbus. She said that within a short time she would inherit the income of $25,000,000, the value of an estate held by a Mrs. Hernandez of Los Angeles, Cal., and that with this money she was planning to build a home for the Christian poor.

She had met Mrs. Kerr before in Cleveland, and her genuineness was never questioned.

She succeeded in negotiating a loan of $300 from Rev. Mr. Kerr, and amounts ranging from $25 to $75 from several other persons with whom she came in contact. She told the Kerr family that she intended to build the institution in Cleveland and that they would be placed in full charge. It would cost $100,000, she said. In this connection, on August 19, she took the members of the family to Cleveland, where, after a few days, she left, claiming that she was going to fulfill an engagement at Columbus with her Los Angeles friend. This was the last seen of her and it is said she is now in Allegheny, Pa. While she was in Dayton she bought a lot, making a small payment upon it with the money she had borrowed from Rev. Mr. Kerr and gave it as a birthday present to Mrs. Kerr.

The woman is said to have pursued her plan with varying success in Cleveland, Columbus, Pittsburg and other cities.

Jesse Kerr, son of Rev. Mr. Kerr, said this morning he is convinced Miss Rice used hypnotic power to influence his father, mother and other victims.

REBELS ACTIVE

Havana, Aug. 29.—Fresh activity in two provinces has given answer to the government's offer of amnesty. There is a fresh menace for the government in this latest move of the revolutionists as well, inasmuch as they are closely encroaching upon United States property and this may lead to intervention which the authorities do not want. Two hundred insurgents seized the town of Cabañas. If the rebels can hold the place they may be able to land arms and ammunition believed to have been shipped from the United States. The town of Cruces in Santa Clara province was also raided by the insurgents.

Pro and Con.
London, Aug. 29.—Dr. Napier, professor of English and Anglo-Saxon in the university of Oxford, gives his unqualified approval to President Roosevelt's action with regard to spelling reform. Thomas Hardy, the novelist, opposes the suggested changes and writes: "I am struck with the advantage of having reform of English spelling taken in hand by an eminent American of Dutch extraction."

Inspects Packing Plants.
Chicago, Aug. 29.—Secretary of Agriculture Wilson spent the day inspecting the packing plants here. He studied the canning departments closely. He expressed himself as greatly pleased with the excellent sanitary condition he found.

Terrorism Increasing.
Lahore, Aug. 29.—Terrorism crimes against persons refusing to affiliate with the revolutionaries continue with increasing vigor.

Police Killed.
Two men were shot and killed by police in a riot in London. The riot was caused by the arrest of a man who was accused of being a revolutionary.

PROF. HUMPHREY LECTURES TONIGHT

DELIGHTFUL RECEPTION GIVEN FOR TEACHERS IN BAPTIST CHURCH LAST NIGHT.

Prof. Pierson's Delineation of Henry VIII.—Poem Published by Request—The Institute.

This evening Professor Humphrey will lecture at the Central Church of Christ, his subject being "The Great American." Music will be furnished by the Arion Quartet. The lecture will begin at 8 o'clock and the general public is invited to be present.

The most delightful event of the week, from a non-scholastic point of view, was the reception given to the visiting teachers on Tuesday evening by members of the Executive committee. For this event the parlors of the Baptist church were generously thrown open, and were early filled with the teachers and a number of friends. During the evening a delightfully informal program was rendered, as follows:

Vocal duet—Mrs. W. H. Hickman, Miss Martha Dollison.

Address—Mr. Humphrey.

Vocal Solo—Mrs. Evars.

Address—Mr. Pierson.

Vocal Solo—Miss Dollison.

Vocal Solo—Mr. Layton.

A pleasant social hour followed, during which ice cream and cake were served to all guests.

This departure of the Executive committee from the beaten track is certainly one to be congratulated, and if possible perpetuated in coming years.

Special mention should be made of Professor Pierson's delineation of Shakespeare's "Henry VIII." as given before the institute in Tuesday afternoon—generally acknowledged to be one of the finest Shakespearean studies heard in Newark for a long time. Especially fine was the depth of feeling portrayed in the presentation of the character of the injured and innocent Queen Catherine, and also the pathos depicted in the closing scenes of the life of her arch-enemy, Wolsey. In this, the finest thing that Professor Pierson has done, he has proved himself not only an entertainer, but a scholar as well.

INDIRECTION.

A general request has been made that the following poem, recited by Professor Pierson, be published in the Advocate for common reference. The poem is entitled "Indirection," by Richard Realf:

Fair are flowers and the children,
But their subtle suggestion is fairer;
Rare is the rose-burst of dawn,
But the secret that clasps it is rarer;
Sweet the exultance of song,
But the strain that precedes it is sweeter;
Nor ever was poem yet writ
But the meaning outmastered the meter.

Never a daisy that grows,
But a mystery guideth the growing;
Never a river that flows,
But a majesty seepers the flowing;
Never a Shakespeare hath soared,
But a greater than he doth enfold him;
Nor ever a prophet foretells,
But a mightier seer hath foretold him.

Back of the canvas that throbs,
The painter is hinted and hidden;
Into the statue that breathes
The soul of the sculptor is bidden;
Back of the joy that is felt
Lie the infinite issues of feeling;
Crowning the glory revealed,
Is the glory that crowns the revealing.

Great are the symbols of being,
But that which is symbolized is greater;
Vast the create and beheld,
But vaster the inward creator;
Back of the sound broods the silence,
Back of the gift stands the giving;
Back of the hand that receives,
Thrill the sensitive nerves of receiving.

Space is as nothing to spirit,
The deed is outdone by the doing;
Warm is the heart of the wooer,
But warmer the heart of the wooing;
Then up from the pit where these Shiver.

And up from the heights where these Shine.
Twin voices and shadows swim star-
ward.
And the essence of life is divine.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

The Tuesday afternoon session of the institute opened with singing "America," followed by roll call.

From 1:15 to 2:00 o'clock was given to Miss Dollison's work in "Scale Relation," and "Tone Syllables." This instruction is proving particularly helpful to those teachers who are planning to introduce the study of music for the first time in their own schools.

Professor Pierson's afternoon subject was announced on the program as "The Little Red School House," but the speaker chose instead to lecture on Shakespeare's "Henry VIII." "You cannot lay claim to a fair degree of intelligence," he declared in beginning, "without some knowledge of Shakespeare. The Bible and Shakespeare form the great Trinity."

Shakespeare's "Henry VIII." deals with two of the wives of that king—Catherine and Anne Boleyn. Riding through the streets of London, quietly pass on to your bus driver a sixpence, and he will immediately become an elaborate encyclopedia of information. Among other things he will point out the house where lived Henry VIII and Cardinal Wolsey. In that house history was made.

The historian has a hard time to uproot the impressions made by literature. Shakespeare's picture of Cardinal Wolsey is the one that will stick. It may be overcolored, but it is drawn by the master hand of Shakespeare, so it remains.

Attempt was made to persuade Catherine to believe her trial a fair one; but she understood the truth, and it was in Wolsey that she chose to make her answer. In her reply is drawn a magnificent picture of outraged innocence, and superiority to base machination. In Catherine's character, as here revealed, we see a wonderful likeness to Esther, the queen of old, who was willing to perish in order to save her beloved people.

Here we see the great Wolsey at the summit of his greatness; but how soon he is to sink from the billing scorn which marks the first step of his downfall—"Farewell, little Lord Cardinal." His descent is rapid. He must give up the seal; then he must be banished, with Cromwell the only friend who remains faithful. So at night, Wolsey goes out in the darkness.

Queen Catherine survives him, but she, too, is sinking into the grave. With her dying breath she speaks for the dead Cardinal, her bitterest enemy, the forgiveness which she had learned from her religious teacher, the good Griffith.

The king has been wedded to the fair Anne Boleyn; by and by a little baby is born in the palace, and to her is given the name of Elizabeth, destined to become the greatest in England's history—the queen in whose honor Shakespeare's hand pens the lines of this play, and to whose greatness he therein pays magnificent tribute.

After intermission, Professor Humphrey continued his Monday afternoon's address on "History." History, he said, is sometimes a pretty dry affair, but the making of history is a lively matter. The ratification of the constitution, returning to the previous train of thought, was not unanimous. Probably the ratio of those approving the document to those not favoring it was as eight to five.

The first open outburst came in the Whiskey Rebellion in Pennsylvania. The governor of that state was intimidated, but the matter—rebellion against payment of the government tax—was a national affair, and Washington called out the militia. When this bloodless war was over, he had answered the first great question, "can one state invade another, and compel it to obey National Law?"

This was in 1794. The second test came in 1799, in the Alien and Sedition Laws. The provisions of these laws were odious, giving to the president monarchical powers, and restricting the freedom of the press. President Adams approved these laws, but Vice President Jefferson looked on them with alarm, as betokening transition to a constitutional monarchy, with line of descent hereditary in the Adams family. So through Jefferson's influence, the Kentucky resolutions were passed, making the first step toward state sovereignty. Soon after Madison fathered the Virginia Resolutions, of similar purport. The result in brief shows these Alien and Sedition Laws to have been the death of the Federalist party.

The Olmstead case, a few years later, led to another contest between the state authority of Pennsylvania and the National government, in which the latter was again successful.

Next trouble came in 1814, along with the close of the War of 1812 which had been bitterly opposed by New England, and left that section just as anxious for secession as ever South Carolina was in the later years.

In 1818-19, the government came into trouble with Maryland over currency laws, passed in opposition to national laws. In 1819-24, Ohio got into trouble along these same lines. The "Crown Law Act" passed by the Ohio Legislature, imposed a tax on National banks of Ohio, and authorized the collecting of this tax by force. A renegeation by the state of the Kentucky Resolutions brought no sympathy, however. Pennsylvania and sister states by this time having come to the point of view of the national government.

In 1825, chief came to South Carolina through the tariff question. South Carolina looked on the tariff as a local question, and in self defense called a convention to annul the Tariff Acts of 1825 and 1828. Jackson, however, proved strong for the government, and the great advocate of compromise, Clay, came forward. Conciliation was the result, and the state got practically what she demanded.

The last struggle came in the great tragedy of 1861-65. There the great issue was forever settled, and teachers should now hold to their pupils the one thought, "I am for my country—right or wrong, I am for my country."

Registration Tuesday afternoon. Charles Van Winkle, Black Run. J. W. Huxley, Newark.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

The Wednesday morning session opened as usual by devotional exercises, and by a half hour's practice in music. Professor Humphrey then announced as his morning's theme, "Scientific Temperance"—a question which of late years has been receiving strong consideration in the public schools. The speaker began by declaring, "Everyone admits that the saloon is wrong," and then continued to discuss the validity of the question, "Shall measures be taken to stamp out this evil?" Self-asserting statistics were presented, showing the power of the drink traffic in the United States; concrete facts that can be presented to school children. In teaching them where we are and where we are going.

In Ohio—mother of Presidents and school masters—there were last year over 80,000 people thrown on the protection of the government, directly or indirectly, through the baneful influence of traffic in intoxicating drinks. Of Ohio's 11,000 idiots, forty-seven per cent were imbeciles through the influence of intoxicants; forty-four hundred of the eight thousand insane are incarcerated for this same cause. Eleven thousand criminals were arrested while under the influence of liquor; two thousand of Ohio's inhabitants lost their lives during the year, either by murder or by fatal accident while intoxicated.

Ohio's legislature has been busy with the question. During the past session four influential laws were enacted:

1. The law declaring that no intoxicating liquors shall be sold in a house where there is dancing or roller skating.
2. The law for local option in city districts by petition.
3. The Jones Search and Seizure Act.
4. The Aiken Bill.

Since 1886, physiology has been a required study in the common school curriculum of Ohio; since 1890, Scientific Temperance has been required in every public school and institute in Ohio. The result has been a wonderful revolution in public sentiment throughout the state, brought about largely through the influence of teaching in the schools. This continued sentiment will be even more potent in influencing future legislation, and in this the teacher's power is great. It is certainly refreshing to think that we are reaching a time when it is popular to do right. Along with evangelizing Africa, let us also turn our attention to the home. Let us recognize the evil in our own country, and apply the remedy, however drastic it may be. Let us make Kipling's "Recessional" our common prayer.

On Wednesday morning an enthusiastic reception was given to President C. C. Miller of Lima College.

In his opening speech, Mr. Miller announced his intention of considering two important dates in the world's history—1809 and 1909.

In 1809, the paint was hardly dry on the first steamboat in the world; but men were already dreaming of rapid transit through the air. Strange that they had thought of that which is not yet achieved, and yet had never conceived the possibilities of the power of steam. When we think of the wonderful rate of speed that a hundred years have given us, it is hard to realize the undeveloped condition attending the beginning of the century—not only in travel, but in every thing. It is only by dwelling on this thought that we can realize how far back 1809 really is. In 1812, Mr. Humphrey Davy invented the safety lamp—before this, miners were subject to all the dangers of explosion, one of the common elements of chemistry were still unknown; Uranus was the farthest planet known to astronomy.

But the most notable feature of the great year 1809 is its wonderful birth-list. In 1809, the hundredth anniversary, there will be something worth while for the public schools to do. Outside of the date marking the birth of the Nazarene, no other year in all history has ever been so great.

First, there was Lincoln—he alone would have made the date famous around the world. And Gladstone—how can England properly celebrate the hundredth anniversary of her Grand Old Man?

These two would suffice for statesmanship, if we cared to go no farther, but there are a dozen lesser lights who might be added, notably Jules Verne, the greatest French statesman of the century.

In the American world of letters, too, find first Oliver Wendell Holmes, the loved poet who always laughs with you, never at you. He would suffice for one year's work, but the same you gives us also the South's greatest poet, Edgar Allan Poe.

The year gave England one of her three great intellectual giants—Alfred Tennyson. And England has another name to add, an honor to her sex—the sweet singer Elizabeth Barrett Browning, who makes the Rose of Sharon blossom besides the darkness of night.

The year gives us one great name for history—Kinkadee the only one who has given the only accurate story of the Crimean war. And in science we have the great name of Darwin.

A good teacher of music is a public benefactor, and in 1909, their pupils will have opportunity to commemorate the birth of the greatest composer, Mendelssohn.

In connection with these great centennial anniversaries is suggested that teachers devote much time to preparation. Teachers must make themselves masters of these great lives, before they can impart to their pupils an adequate appreciation of what the year and its gifts of great lives meant to the world.

By special request, Mr. Pierson devoted the last half hour of Wednesday morning's session to the recital of several poems. His recitals were not only perfect in themselves, but were most delightfully interspersed with rambling literary comments, whose value cannot be overestimated.

SPRIGHTLY SINGER.

New York, Aug. 29.—One of the hits of the new musical comedy "The Little Cherub," at the Criterion, is the song, "I Should So Like to be a

Miss May Naudain

Boy," sung by a quartet of pretty girls. One of the sprightliest of the four is Miss May Naudain. Her companions are Mabel Hollins, Winona Winter and Grace Field.

To Protect German Interests.

Berlin, Aug. 29.—The North German Gazette announced that Baron Von Nordenflicht, the counsel general of Germany at New Orleans, had been directed to proceed to Havana to protect German interests in Cuba during the absence of the minister resident, who is on leave of absence.

PALMA'S OFFER OF CLEMENCY

Regarded as an Important Incident
by Both Press and Public.

HAS NOT YIELDED RESULTS

Revolutionary Sentiment Shows No Signs of Diminution—Earthworks Being Constructed For the Defense of the City of Pinar Del Rio—Insurgents Deserting and Going Home.

Havana, Aug. 29.—In the absence of any news of fighting between government and insurgent forces interest centers in the government's offer of clemency to those of its enemies who will lay down their arms and return to their homes. While the press and public regard the offer as an important incident of the conflict, the result thus far has not been what the government seemed to anticipate. It is criticized especially in many quarters because it does not fix a time limit for the laying down of arms, thus giving the insurgents time to test their cause and still reserve the opportunity to quit when satisfied there is no chance of success.

The forces of the revolutionary sentiment do not appear as yet to have greatly diminished and there are no signs of the laying down of arms; but it is too early to expect a response to Secretary Montalvo's order.

The construction of the earthworks for the defense of the city of Pinar del Rio is being pushed. It is sated there that a considerable number of insurgents have deserted and gone to their homes, asserting that they were deceived by those who induced them to join the revolt.

There have been some disturbances and shootings at night at towns on the western railroad.

Scattering reports are coming in that some of the insurgents are taking advantage of the government's offer of pardon and laying down their arms. None of the insurgent generals has yet done so.

Veterans in the Field.

Havana, Aug. 29.—Three hundred veterans, infantry and cavalry, commanded by General Perez, started for Batabano to cover that district. General Boza, commanding 100 prominent veterans, most of whom served on the staff of the famous Maximo Gomez, started for Pinar del Rio by special train. Gunboats took to Batabano 200 cases of ammunition. Mosquito gunboats are watching filibusters.

WILL OBEY THE LAW.

Railroad Officials Give Assurance of Their Intentions.

Washington, Aug. 29.—There was a conference in this city of members of the interstate commerce commission and representatives of the railroads and shippers of the country. The railroad officials present numbered 34, among whom were Vice President Caldwell of the Lackawanna, Vice President Grammar of the New York Central, Counsel Massey of the Pennsylvania, and General Counsel Clardy of the Missouri Pacific, J. A. Farley of Dallas, and James Maynard of Knoxville, Tenn., were among the speakers for the shippers. The American Shippers' association and the Illinois Manufacturers' association were not represented.

The railroad representatives uniformly gave assurances of their intention to fully comply with the new law, but presented their views as to the operation of certain provisions, among the points urged being extension of the time in which carriers may file their tariffs with the commission; continuance of the present method of posting tariffs; objection to any change in export and import rates, pending a full hearing, and the absolute concurrence of all the carriers interested before the establishment of joint rates.

President Reforms His Spelling.

Oyster Bay, Aug. 29.—Secretary William H. Taft received the first letter from President Roosevelt written in accordance with the rules of the reformed spelling board. The letter pertained to the business of the government, which fact rendered its publication impossible. Beginning last night, all of the executive correspondence will be spelled in accordance with the recommendations of the reformed spelling board.

Shooting Array.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 29.—At Newville, Tallapoosa county, Charles Cook was killed and his son George probably fatally wounded by John C. Crowe, who was also wounded. About fifteen shots were exchanged between Crowe and the Cooks at the polling place. All the participants are well known.

Escaped Convict Captured.

Sorrento, Ill., Aug. 29.—Wm. Lyons, alias Frank Rose, an escaped convict from the Michigan City (Ind.) penitentiary, who three weeks ago was surrounded at Charleston, Ill., but escaped, was captured here last night as he was about to blow up the Bee sen bank building.

Rennenkampf Appointed.

London, Aug. 29.—The Standard's Warsaw correspondent telegraphs that General Rennenkampf has been appointed successor of General Skatton, governor of Warsaw.

The hotels of the city have just received the latest edition of the Official Hotel Red Book and Directory of the United States. The book is neatly bound in red cloth and contains the latest reports of the rates,
names of proprietors and landlords
and the locations of the hotels of the principal towns in the country.

Rev. Mr. Miller Returns.

Rev. and Mrs. H. Newton Miller
returned home Tuesday afternoon after a vacation of several weeks. Mr.
Miller and his family spent a week at his old home in Washington county, Pa., and were at Lakeside for two weeks. Mr. Miller states that he will conduct the regular services at the Fourth street Church of Christ next Sunday.

At Buckeye Lake Cottage.

Buckeye Lake was the scene of a pleasant event Sunday, when a house
warming was given at Irvidale cottage
the summer cottage of Irvin T. Coe, of Columbus, who has recently finished a cottage at the lake. The party was met by Mr. Coe and wife and ushered into the cottage where a fine spread had been prepared.—Wednesday's Ohio State Journal.

Independent Order Foresters.

The Independent Order of Foresters will give a picnic at Buckeye Lake next Friday, August 31. There will be dancing in the evening from 8 to 11 o'clock. Tickets for dance
20 cents. The committee wishes all companions and brothers to bring husband or wife and children and enjoy a day's outing. The assistance of all members of the order is desired.
Aug. 27-29-30

Jolly Camping Party.

A jolly crowd of young ladies who have been enjoying a week's camp at Buckeye Lake, returned home Monday. The party was composed of Miss Anna McCarton, Miss Sue Mc-
Carton, Miss Lizzie McCarton, Miss
Georgia Eckert, Miss May Rogers,
Miss Irene Rogers, Miss Frances Weaver. They occupied a pleasant little cottage, which they named Notoch-soc, which is Coshocton spelled backwards. Every moment of their stay was a pleasure and a fitting climax was the elegant party given in their honor Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Gahner at their handsome home in Newark.—Coshocton Times.

The Ladies' Aid Society.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the East Main street M. E. church will have a tea and market on Thursday evening at the church.

Remembered Mr. Cochran.

Mr. Frank Knauber, who has just returned from Minneapolis and a trip through the northwest, brought home a beautiful souvenir for his friend, Mr. Henry Cochran of the American-Tribune. The souvenir is a beautiful silver cup engraved with scenes in and around Minneapolis.

Picnic at Lake.

The picnic held at Buckeye Lake
today under the auspices of Licking Lodge No. 80, I. A. of M., was largely attended, and it is estimated that fully 1000 people are in attendance upwards of 700 tickets having been sold at 1 o'clock. Everybody is having a splendid time, and a big program of amusements is being carried out.

Stricken With Paralysis.

Crom Brown, a teamster, who has been engaged at work for some time hauling material for the new skyscraper being erected on Third street sustained a stroke of paralysis Wednesday morning. He had gone to work as usual when he was suddenly stricken, his left side being affected.
He was taken to his home just south of the city, where he is being cared for.

Pastor Schindel to Speak.

The soldiers and sailors of five companies in Southern Ohio, including Fairfield, Pickaway, Vinton, Ross
and one other, hold their annual reunion at Kingston, Thursday, when the Rev. J. C. Schindel of St. Paul's church, this city, will deliver the ator Dunlap and Congressman General Keifer of Springfield, will be in attendance.

Left Leg Broken.

Mr. John Davis residing in the Welsh Hills north of Granville, met with a serious accident while driving on Hudson avenue Tuesday afternoon about 4:30. He was driving a young colt when the quarter strap on one side gave way, causing the carriage to run on the animal which became frightened and began running and kicking. Mr. Davis remained in the buggy for a while but soon realizing the peril of his position, jumped. He alighted on the left ankle breaking both bones just above the joint. The frightened horse was stopped before any further damage resulted. Dr. R.
E. McCullough was called, and after dressing the injured leg, sent the man to his home near Granville.

WEDDINGS.

JOHNSON-TAYLOR.

Mr. John L. Johnson and Miss Belle Taylor of Coshocton, were united in marriage by the Rev. L. C.
Sparks at his residence Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The young couple will take an extended trip west
and will reside in Coshocton.

CRAMER-PRICE.

William Cramer and Lalah Price,
both well known young people of Johnstown were united in marriage Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the parsonage of the First M. E. church, the Rev. L. C. Sparks performing the ceremony. Mr. Cramer is a well known carpenter of Johnstown, and his bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ada Price of that village.
They will reside in Johnstown.

JEFFRIES-FRIZZA.

On Tuesday evening at the parsonage
of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Rev.
J. C. Schindel united in marriage Mr.
Joseph Jeffries and Miss Gusta Frizza.
The groom is a well known young man in the city, having been connected with the fruit store of Jos. Geor-getti for some time. The bride has been in America about one year her home being in Tuscany, Italy.

The young couple will make their home in Newark.

A light frost was reported from Reading Kan. breaking the record of the last ten years for early frost.

Hunted by the fear that she would become hopelessly insane, Mrs. H. D.
Hatch of Hart, Mich., poured benzine
on her clothes and applied a match.
She died a few hours later.

HERCULES IN AMERICA

New York, Aug. 29.—Quite a formidable aspirant for American athletic honors in the weight throwing line arrived here a couple of days ago in the person of George Georgantias, of Athens, Greece, champion of his country at the discus, and the man who defeated Martin Sheridan in the stone putting contest at the Olympic games last spring. The Greek has come to Georgantias

stay for quite a while, and incidentally
he will have a shy at the best weight throwers here, but he is especially anxious to have a few more trials with Sheridan in the American method of throwing the discus.

Since the date of the Olympic games Georgantias has been in bad odor with the government authorities of Greece,
for he publicly insulted King George I
by refusing his prizes the closing day of the game. The athlete gave out several long interviews to the papers justifying his action, and they were to the effect that he was wronged by the officials in throwing the discus, Greek style. But this did not please those in authority, although Georgantias had the sympathy of a big majority of the Greeks in and around Athens. For awhile it looked as if the discus thrower would suffer official ostracism, but as time wore on the episode died away and then Georgantias thought he would exile himself and set for America.

President to See Target Practice.

President Roosevelt has made plans to be present at the next target practice of the fleet, which will be held off Massachusetts bay on Sept. 23, and to be on board one of the war ships taking part in it. This will be the first time that a president of the United States has been on board a vessel at target practice since 1843, when President Tyler and several members of his cabinet went on board the Princeton to see "the Peacemaker" fired. On that occasion the famous gun, a mon-ter in its day, burst
at the first shot and killed the secretary of the navy and the secretary of state
and injured thirteen other persons.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble weighs upon the mind, discourage and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor
and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent
that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urines too often, if the urine scalds the face or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, dropsy, or if, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble,
and both need the same great remedy.

it was Mr. Little's victory on form, and the result came in his favor at 15-7, 6-4.

A part of this contest was played in the rain. This appeared to back Mr. Anderson's powerful moving to some extent and he landed many of his returns by hitting the ball down into the net. He improved as the rain stopped and the game began to heat,
and during constantly to Mr. Little's backhand shot, which was the international covered himself and saved him. In the last set during the greater part of which

Mr. Anderson held the lead

ISSUE RAISED BY A SMYSER ORGAN

The "Standard of Morality" of the Two Congressional Candidates is the Question Before the People of the Seventeenth District.

In a long and labored effort to find fault with the temperance record and personal character of Mr. Wm. A.
Ashbrook, the American-Tribune has the hardihood to make the following statement:

"Yet do the people of the 17th congressional district desire to have such men as he (Ashbrook) and with such a standard of morality to represent them in Congress?"

In view of the well-known character of Smyser, the Republican candidate for Congress, such a reckless statement as the above can have no other effect than to bring out into the lime light a fair and square comparison of the "standard of morality" of the two candidates.

The friends of Mr. Ashbrook are ready for the comparison to the fullest extent.

Neither Mr. Ashbrook nor his friends are responsible for raising this issue pertaining to the personal character of the two candidates, but since a Smyser organ has had the temerity to force it into the campaign, the Republican candidate must abide the consequences.

Let it be understood, therefore,
that this "standard of morality" is the issue forced upon the campaign
by a Smyser organ, and let the lime light be turned on.

Protection for American Labor is not now the Republican war cry in Congressman Littleton's district.
Maine, where President Gumpers of the Federation of Labor is conspicuous in the campaign against the Republican candidate. The Republican war cry in that district now is Protection against Labor.

The American-Tribune again resorts to its method of assailing Mr.
Ashbrook with its fictitious writer,
the anonymous "Pattison Democrat".
This is a very thin disguise. A genuine Pattison Democrat would not be guilty of such falsehood and misrepresentation. If a genuine Pattison Democrat wishes to state he would oppose Ashbrook, let him say so.

come out in the open and be manly enough to make his statements over his own signature.

Apparently Senator Foraker has neatly countered on Congressman Burton in the squabble over the resolutions of indorsement in the coming Republican state convention. Foraker's party is inclined to censure
him for opposing President Roosevelt on the rate bill. The senior Ohio senator shows that Burton, who is leading the opposition, too, opposed the President, notably in the navy and ship subsidy bills. But there is likely to be made a distinction in motive in the two cases. Foraker's attitude, his whole activity in Congress, in fact has been along corporation lines and in the service of special interests. Burton's has not. And many Republicans seem determined to put considerable healthy emphasis on this difference in their official declaration. Everything points to the most bitter fight ever put up in a state convention when the Republican factions come together at Dayton.

GREATER BRYAN

(By O. C. Larason.)
William Bryan, he has nobly,
Reached the dizzy heights of fame,
With the world's renowned statesmen.
Will the People write his name

He is welcome, greatest champion
Of the people's rights today,
Hating trusts and ill-got earnings,
Loving those the law obey

Kings and potentates unnumbered
Have besought him as a guest,
Yet his love for common people
Ranks higher in his breast!

He is coming, Greater Bryan,
To Columbia's greater shore,
With experience ripe and fruitful, Gathered from the world's great store.

We can ill afford to lose him,
From the helm of Ship of State
Then we'll know no other nation,
Has a ruler quite so great.

JUNK UNLOADED ON THE TREASURER

Columbus, O., Aug. 29.—Instead of the millions that should be ehere the examiners of the State Bureau of Accounting, who have just reported
upon the condition of the Summit county treasury, declare that they found just $198.36 in actual cash in the vaults at the court house in Akron. They did not, as public rumor said they would, find any of the personal paper of United States Senator Charles Dick, in the list of securities held by the removed treasurer, Fred
B. Smith.

They did, however, find a $10,000
note of the Akron Electrical Manufacturing company, which was indorsed by L. C. Miles, the state central committeeman from the nineteenth district, one of the senator's political aids-de-camp. They discovered, too, that the deficit in cash on August 15 was $217,842.34.

EIGHTEEN INCH GAS PIPE AT

RICE OIL WELL NOW FLOWING

Field Work of Columbus Gas and Fuel Company Very Successful.
Late Gas News.

(Special to the Advocate.)
Appleton, O., Aug. 29.—With a terrific explosion that was heard for several miles, the eighteen inch gas
main of the Ohio Fuel company running from Homer burst about four miles north of Appleton Tuesday about noon, tearing a hole in the ground large enough to bury a haystack. Two joints of pipe burst, making a hole in the ground 40 feet long.
The escaping gas at once caught fire and blazed above the tree tops and did some damage to grass and corn fields before the gas was shut off.
The explosion occurred in the open and nobody was near enough to be hurt.

At Vern, Aug. 29.—The Rice oil
well, which was given up as dry and the lease returned to the land owner,
has started flowing. It will yield 50 barrels a day and will make Rice wealthy.

Columbus, Aug. 29.—Field work of the Columbus Gas and Fuel company has this year been very successful.
During July wells whose output will aggregate over 10,000,000 cubic feet
of gas daily were drilled in and several good wells have come in during this month. Last week a well in new territory, north of Granville came in over 3,000,000 cubic feet daily. The local company had taken a number of leases in this territory.
So far no limits have been defined to the new Licking-Knox field.

One of the buildings for the new artificial plant is up and work is going on on the others. The artificial mains are being overhauled and this will lead to marked economy in the operation of the artificial plant. One main which was taken up proved to have in it a two inch hole, through which hundreds of feet of gas were escaping daily.

GLOOM OR GINGER?

Both Are Found Lurking in Your Breakfast, Dinner and Supper.

Not many people realize that the easiest way to affect the brain is through the stomach. The most common illustration of this is the result of drinking whiskey or any intoxicating drink. The same is true as to any article of food.

And you have probably at times
eaten something that lay like a lump of lead on your stomach. You can't forget how it makes you feel,—groggy, uncomfortable and peevish. That's because everything that affects the stomach affects the brain! If your stomach feels good, you will.

But not everything will have a effect on the brain. Pie won't. Neither will grease or fat. That's because there is no nourishment in them, they simply create heat but no strength. They make the stomach work overtime, make you dreary and your brain foggy.

Nature has made the cereals to supply the brain and muscles of the world. The most intensely nourishing cereals are wheat and barley. By eating these you get the greatest amount of strength and blood-fibre it is possible to get from any other food
in the world.

That's what Hardyfood is made of,
—wheat and malted barley. Every particle of indigestible material found in them is thrown out, and there is left nothing but the very life of the grain—the purest wheat and barley.

You can eat Hardyfood for breakfast, dinner or supper, or noonday luncheon, with cream and it will taste delicious.

Often you sit at table and don't know what you want. Just eat Har-dyfood. It will satisfy that peculiar craving in your stomach, make you feel as though you had had a fulsome, delicious meal, and without any of the bad after effects. It will make your stomach feel fine. It will make your brain feel clear, and you will smile and be good natured. That's the object. Smiles flirt with success.

Hardyfood builds brain, bone,
brawn and nerve, because it contains the most nourishing foods in the world.

You can't get muscle from a ten-derloin steak; you can't remember things any better by eating ham.
These things make fat,—all fat and no brain.

Hardyfood gives the maximum of nerve and brain force, and demands
the minimum of digestion. You hardly need a stomach to digest it.

It will make you feel good all over.
It is the life of the whole family.

Buy Hardyfood of any grocer for 10c. a package.

BERNHARDT'S LATEST

Here is a picture of Mme. Bernhardt, not as she is on the stage, but as she is at home. It is taken from the London Sketch, where it was printed apropos of the fact that for

Mme. Sarah Bernhardt

the third time the Council of the Legion of Honor has refused to decorate Mme. Sarah Bernhardt, much to the indignation of artistic France, to say nothing of other countries that have delighted in the great actress' art.

The reason is difficult to find something that is personal, others that it is because Mme. Bernhardt is not attached to a subsidized theater, and still others that it is because she is not a professor.

SENATOR DICK ISSUES A DEF

Pays a Tribute to His Colleague in the Upper House.

CAN NOT THINK OF RETREAT

Speaking of the Suggestions Made by
H. M. Daugherty in His Cleveland
Address, He Declares Senators Owe
it to Their Friends to Fight the Matter to a Finish.

Akron, O., Aug. 29.—Senator Charles
Dick, following the example of Senator Foraker, has made public his views on the issues raised by the address of H. M. Daugherty, former chairman of the Republican state
comm'tee, at Cleveland last Saturday, in which he urged the retirement of Senator Dick as chairman of the state executive committee and a less cordial indorsement of Senators Foraker and Dick than of President Roosevelt by the state convention.

Senator Dick in his statement says:
"Personally no one can regret more than I any antagonism or opposition toward the Ohio senators and their friends. Politically I am satisfied to know that whatever opposition there may be has at last found a responsible head, and that every congressman,
every state officer, every candidate,
has publicly repudiated this opposition. It has looked long and diligently for a nurse and has sought far and wide to establish its paternity; but until last Saturday, when it was publicly adopted, it had gone about like an orphan seeking both sustenance
and a patron.

"This is not the first experience of the kind. Ohio Republicans had to decide a like controversy some years ago. At that time Senator Hanna was denounced by some as a 'rednecked boss'; President Roosevelt was called a 'jelly fish,' and Judge Nash a 'man without backbone.' All these men, however, survived the taunts and insults of their enemies and were sustained throughout by the loyal Ohio Republicans.

"If the Ohio senators were disposed for any reason to retire from the conflict they could not do so now. They owe it to their friends over the entire state, as well as to themselves, to fight this matter to a finish. In this contest their friends will be found on one side, their enemies on the other.
In the controversy, however, the national administration is not involved, since no one opposes a strong and emphatic endorsement of the president. The whole situation has shifted to opposition of Ohio senators and the present party organization. The coming state convention, all delegates participating, must decide these matters.

"The Ohio senators differed from each other on several important measures before the senate, including the statehood bill, the Philippine tariff bill, the type of inter-oceanic canal, and the railroad rate bill; on many other measures they were agreed. The fact that we entertained different convictions never for one moment lessened my respect for my colleague, never lowered my high regard for him as a man, and never invited a doubt of his loyalty to his party or his devotion to his country.
I know of no reason, therefore, why
he should not receive a strong commendation from those whom he so ably served."

MARKSMANSHIP

Of a Texas Woman a Feature of the Shooting at Seagirt.

Sea Girt, N. J., Aug. 29.—Excellent shooting conditions attended the second day of the great military shooting tournament. An interesting feature of the day was the excellent marksmanship of Mrs. Elizabeth Top-perwein of San Antonio, Tex., who qualified for enrollment as a member of the National Marksman's Reserve
by scoring 59 out of a possible 75 in all, seven shots each, at 800, 900 and 1,000 yards. The Leech cup match, open to all, seven shots each, at 800, 900 and
1,000 yards, was won by Captain
Stewart Wise, First corps of cadets,
Boston, with the fine score of 100 out of a possible 105. Second prize, $25, was won by Corporal Eastman, Ohio,
with a total of 94.

Failed to Materialize.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 29.—The Populist state convention called to meet here to nominate a state ticket failed to materialize, only nine delegates making their appearance. Chairman Holloway of the executive committee said: "As has been well understood for some time, we have no intention of placing a ticket in the field. Fully ninety per cent of the Populists voted for Hoke Smith. They felt that he stood for many things we have advocated for years."

Cheap Oil.

Independence, Kan., Aug. 29.—The Prairie Gas and Oil company announced a reduction of 3 cents a barrel in the price of all western oils.
High grade now brings 29 cents and fuel oil 26 cents. Unless drilling is stopped it is feared the price will go much lower.

REVENUE UNDER OHIO COLE LAW

LARGE AUDIENCE ATTENDS THE OPENING OF CINCINNATI
FALL FESTIVAL.

Central Life Again Sued—Fatal Explosion—Railway Valuation.
Ohio News Budget.

Columbus, O., Aug. 29.—The gross earnings of the public service companies taxed under the Cole law will reach this year the enormous sum of $200,000,000. The reports of the companies are due by September 1, and many are already in. Included in the list of quasi-public corporations taxed under this law are steam and electric railroads, express, telegraph and telephone, signal and messenger, pipe line, gas and electric light and power companies, and freight line companies. They are taxed one per cent on their gross earnings, so that the law will produce this year $2,000,000 of revenue. Last year their earnings reached $180,000,000, so that the total revenue produced was only $1,800,000.

Cincinnati Festival.
Cincinnati, Aug. 29.—The Cincinnati Fall Festival association offered as its chief attraction a spectacular production of the London musical success, The Blue Moon, with James T. Powers in the title role and 200 persons in the production. It was the first performance of the play in America. Besides an enormous chorus and orchestra, elephants and horses were used on the stage. The audience numbered 3,900 people, the capacity of Music hall. Mr. and Mrs. Longworth were guests of honor in one of the boxes.

Central Life Again Sued.
Cincinnati, O., Aug. 29.—Another suit against the Union Central Life Insurance company for back taxes claimed by the county was filed by County Legal Counsel Ireton, Collins, Schoenle and Poor, and Attorney Alfred B. Benedict. The suit is the third of its kind, and demands judgment for $994,477.68, being $947,121.60 claimed due for taxes on the 1905 tax duplicate, with the 5 per cent treasurer's penalty added.

Fatal Dynamite Explosion.
Canton, O., Aug. 29.—John Flinn was killed and four workmen seriously injured while engaged on the Wash railroad at Brewster, 14 miles southwest of here. All were laborers using a steam shovel. A charge of dynamite placed to tear up the ground failed to go off as expected. The workmen, with a steam shovel, got too near it and it exploded.

Increase in Railroad Valuation.
Columbus, O., Aug. 29.—Though very few miles of new steam railroad were built in Ohio last year, the appraisalment of railroad property for taxation this year shows a large increase. The total valuation is $148,000,328. Last year it was only $135,669,294.

Veteran Shoots Himself.
Sandusky, O., Aug. 29.—Milton S. Pollock, an inmate of the state soldiers' home, and a sufferer from cancer of the stomach, committed suicide by shooting himself.

Boy Drowned.
Akron, O., Aug. 29.—Carl H. Taggart, aged 15, of Galion, was drowned in the canal. He was wading and was seized with cramps in shallow water.

Engineer Killed.
Youngstown, O., Aug. 29.—Peter Higgins, aged 30, an engineer on the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie, was killed by a traction car here.

Soccer Football Game.
Cincinnati, O., Aug. 29.—The Corinthians of England defeated the Cincinnati team at soccer football by a score of 19 to 0.

DIVORCE SUIT HOTLY CONTESTED

M'CONNELL CASE IS ON TRIAL
BEFORE JUDGE BRISTER IN PROBATE TODAY.

Suit For Alimony—Notice to Jurymen—Budget of News From the Court House.

The case of Harry McConnell vs. Margaret McConnell, suit for divorce, is being hotly contested in the Probate court. Smythe & Smythe represent the plaintiff and James R. Fitzgibbon is the attorney for the defendant.

Suit for Alimony.
Emily Hampshire has commenced suit in the Probate court for alimony from her husband, Oliver Hampshire. The parties were married December 30, 1875, and have six children. The plaintiff says that for years defendant has been cruel and on numerous occasions has assaulted her with his fists. She says that since August 15, 1906, they have lived apart; that her husband about six weeks prior to the time of their separation, abandoned her and drove her from the house, commanding her not to return. Defendant is also charged with infidelity. She says defendant earns $2 per day as a foreman in the Pratt-Kirk company's mill. She asks for reasonable alimony. Smythe & Smythe attorneys.

Notice to Jurymen.
The members of the regular April term of petit jury will report September 4, as heretofore ordered, for the trial of the case of the State of Ohio vs. James P. Lingafelter, charged with forgery.

Adjudged Insane.
Mrs. Ellen Tucker, wife of Thomas Tucker of Wagram, Etina township, was adjudged insane by Probate Judge Brister on Wednesday morning. The woman is aged about 57 years. She was taken to Columbus Wednesday morning by Deputy Sheriff Hindel and turned over to the officials of the State Hospital for the Insane.

Petition for Partition.
Flora Baughman has commenced proceedings in the Common Pleas court against Laura Babcock and Charles Babcock for partition of two parcels of land in Fallsbury township containing about 90 acres. The defendants are husband and wife. Plaintiff and defendant, Laura Babcock, are tenants in common in the premises; one-half of the premises belongs to the plaintiff and one-half to Laura Babcock. The defendant, Charles Babcock, has an inchoate right of dower in the undivided one-half of the premises. There is personal property belonging to the estate of Ezekiah Taylor sufficient to pay all debts and demands against the estate. Plaintiff prays that by an order of the court her interest in the premises may be set off to her in severalty if the same can be done without manifest injury; if not, then that the premises be sold according to law, and that partition be made for such proceedings in the premises as are authorized by law. Smythe & Smythe, attorneys for plaintiff.

Marriage Licenses.

CINCINNATI'S BIG FALL FESTIVAL INAUGURATED.

And Thousands Are Traveling to the Ohio Metropolis.

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 29.—All roads now lead to Cincinnati. The Fall Festival, which has just opened so gloriously here, is the first big Exposition since the late St. Louis World's Fair. It is this city's fifth and finest.

The magnificent permanent buildings dedicated to expositions during the busy era of Cincinnati's annual industrial shows are crowded with exhibits of note, while "The Circle" in Washington Park, connected with Music Hall by a bridge across Elm street, is a composite "Pike" and "Midway" brought right up to date.

Thousands of strangers have already planned to visit Cincinnati during the days of her autumn glory, and the invitation is sent broadcast, assuring a welcome as delightfully warm as the breath of an Indian summer day.

Cincinnati's best business blood is behind this fifth of a series of autumn festivals given "for the glory and honor of Cincinnati." The fame of the Queen City's hospitality extends beyond Uncle Sam's domains, and she has put on her best bib and tucker to entertain throngs of visitors.

"The first American production of 'The Blue Moon'—a musical spectacle transplanted by the Shuberts from London—proved an event of 'remendous theatrical performance.' It was staged in Music Hall through the courtesy of Heuck's Opera House Company, of Cincinnati, O., managers of the Lyric Theater. Pretty girls, catchy music, gorgeous scenery, magnificent costumes and bright comedy make up a stage picture of wondrous worth. 'The Blue Moon' runs all month and will make a new amusement record for Cincinnati.

"Fighting the Flames" occupies a whole city block on the banks of the canal back of the Exposition buildings. Realistic exhibitions of fire-fighting, ladder scaling, life-net jumping, rescue work and quick coupling stir all the red blood in one's veins.

One of the greatest tragedies in the Nation's history is recalled in "The Johnstown Flood," which is reproduced with wonderful electrical effects. Jim Key, the educated horse, has been added to the great roster of attractions in "The Circle." "In the Shadow of the Cross" is a new illusion of the Christ. The Daughters of the Confederacy are serving light lunches, and their big booth is the accepted headquarters of the Southern hosts.

The Fall Festival is responsible for one wonderful revival. There is tremendous travel by river, for the steamboat lines have made great concessions in the way of round trips at rates lower than were ever dreamed of before. Railroads are also doing their share in the matter of excursion rates.

Hurbaugh certainly has big furniture wagons, because they move very near every family in one load. 5-21d

REUNION AT CHILLICOTHE

NEWARK SPANISH WAR VETERANS WILL TAKE PART IN TWO DAY PROGRAM.

"Rosey" Has Souvenirs For Those Who Attend—Major Irvine Will Deliver an Address.

At the first annual reunion of the Seventh Ohio Volunteer Infantry regiment, (Spanish War service) to be held at Chillicothe, Ohio, Thursday and Friday of this week, the old band with Major Dolan, will be one of the features, and "Rosey" of the Newark company will carry the past flag that was used every day of the seven months' service. This flag of which Rosey was the custodian was cut off and hemmed as the end would fray out and the pieces were saved and Cliff has had cards printed and will fasten a piece of the old flag to each one and will give them to his old comrades as souvenirs of the first reunion. The Newark and Hebron boys will leave by way of the C. B. & N. to Columbus, where the third rail Valley route will be taken to Chillicothe. It is about a four hour run from Newark. The Chillicothe train is not found at the Interurban station, but at the company's own depot on the corner of Third and Rich streets at Columbus.

Chillicothe, O., Aug. 29.—The first reunion of the Seventh Ohio U. S. Volunteer Infantry, Spanish American War Veterans, will be held in this city Thursday and Friday. The address of welcome will be delivered by Mayor Yaple. The response will be made by Carmel Thompson of Ironton. Albert Douglass of Chillicothe, Major Irvine of Newark, and Captain Thomas D. Binkley of New Lexington will make addresses Friday.

The finances are coming nicely, and President Vaughters of the Electric company, has issued street car tickets so that the boys of the regiment may ride free. On Friday afternoon Manager Gramm of the Logan automobile works will furnish trucks with seats on them so that the boys may view the city.

The committee also secured the free use of the boats in Yoctangee park and all who wear badges will be permitted to ride free.

REUNION OF OLD REGIMENT

VETERANS OF SEVENTY-SIXTH TO GATHER TOMORROW AT UHRICHSVILLE.

Capt. Hull Left Today With Old Battleflags and Badges for Soldiers Who Will Attend.

The 28th annual reunion of the old Seventy-sixth regiment, O. V. I., will be held in Uhrichsville, O., on Thursday, August 30, and great arrangements are being made here by the old veterans to attend the reunion. The Seventy-sixth regiment was a distinctively Licking county regiment, all the companies with the exception of two being composed of Licking county men. The regiment was mustered in on February 6, 1862, at Camp Sherman, Newark, O., by Charles R. Woods, Colonel 75th Regiment, and was mustered out on July 15, 1865, at Louisville, Ky., by William L. Alexander, Captain 30th Iowa Volunteer Infantry, and A. C. M. First Division, Fifteenth Army Corps. The regiment saw some of the hardest service of the war. Capt. C. W. Hull of a Company, left Wednesday morning for Uhrichsville, taking with him the old battleflags of the regiment and the badges for the veterans who will be in attendance at the reunion. A big camp fire will be held this evening.

Lancaster, O., Aug. 29.—The bugs who attended the game at Eagle park Tuesday afternoon to see the Lancaster-Newark double header, got their money's worth for after the Lanks had taken both games of a double header, the second contest worked itself up to a grand climax and for the first time this season, blood flowed freely on the ball diamond resulting from a stiff punch in the nose given by Second Baseman Haval of the Newark team to Umpire Jim Bates.

The assault was provoked by a raw decision handed out by Umpire Bates at the plate which gave Lancaster their winning run in the second game. With Buster Brown on second, Humphreys singled and the ball was returned to the plate to cut off the run. There is a difference of opinion about the decision. Some say that Brown was lying on the rubber while Winters was yet juggling the ball. Other spectators say that Winters had the ball on Brownie before he slid into the plate. At any rate the rag chewing followed and continued but a short time before Haval landed on Bates' face with his fist and the blood spurted.

The crowd surged on the field but officers were on hand and took Haval into custody and locked him up. The other members of the team soon succeeded in putting up the necessary bond for his appearance for trial and he was again set free.

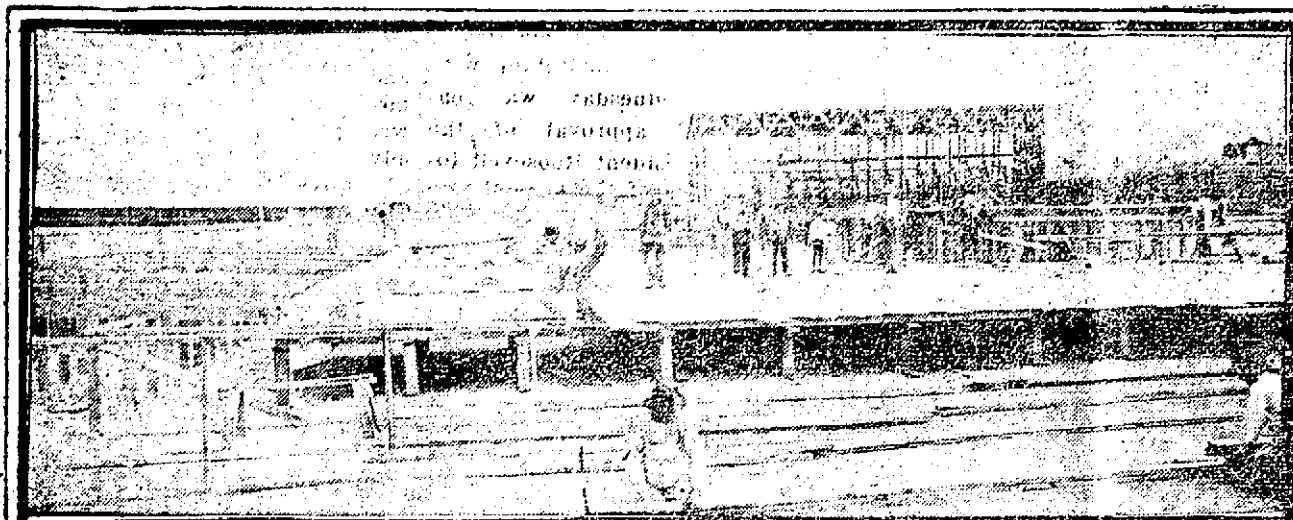

First Game.

Webb and Upp worked in the first game which went ten innings. It was a close contest from the beginning, Lancaster scoring one in the first. Newark took the lead by scoring a couple in the fourth, but in the tenth Webb seemed to weaken and Heller singled, a feat duplicated by Elston. Humphreys sent a scorching double to the fence and Heller went home easily.

Second Game.

The second contest by agreement, was to go seven innings. Geyer who has proven a puzzle to the Newark bunch all season, was working well, though he did not use his spit ball much. Schweitzer and Haval were the only Newark hitters to profit by his delivery and both Germans batted well. Schweitzer got three bingles and Captain Haval got two. Stoupe worked well with men on bases except

Goldfield, Nev., Aug. 29.—Betting on the fight between Nelson and Gans has shifted perceptibly in Gans' favor. The negro fighter is now a ruling favorite.

The confidence Gans has in the outcome of the contest is reflected in telegrams he sent out. The following is a copy of one sent to "Honest John" Kelly, in New York: "Have a good bet down on me. Will win, sure."

To John Considine he wired: "Bet all you can on me. Will win, sure. Will take half of all you get down."

In all he sent 13 such telegrams to Eastern friends. He instructed Mr. Sullivan to make the following bets: One thousand dollars that he scores the first knockdown; $1,000 that he except in the last inning, when the umpire favored the Lanks in the decision which caused all the trouble.

The Newark team will make their farewell appearance at Lancaster this afternoon when they play the Lanks in another double header. The local bunch has been successful in double headers this season and the bugs here are hopeful for the best in today's game. Scores:

draws first blood, $1,000 that he will win inside of fifteen rounds, and $1,000 that when he hits the Dane with his right the latter will go down to defeat. So far Sullivan has failed to procure any of these wagers.

If Gans loses the fight he will leave Goldfield without a dollar. The rest sporting opinion here is that he will win in fifteen rounds.

Report has it that Nolan will in all hazards insist that Gans weigh in at full ring costume.

Gans and Siler discussed the championship rules and the articles of agreement governing the coming contest. As regards Nolan's contention that Gans must weigh in with his costume and gloves on, Siler says that if the matter comes within his province to decide he will rule that Gans has the same privilege as the contestants in the majority of the ring events of the last 10 years, and must be permitted to weigh with or without his ring clothes.

On hearing this Gans turned to Tex Rickard, who was present, and said: "I hope the club will take this matter up and have it passed upon. I tell you right now that I cannot weigh 125 pounds with my things on and have any strength left. If I was to try to fight under such conditions it would mean a disappointment for the people who bought tickets. If I was crooked in this affair I could do what Nolan asks and make some kind of a bluff, but I want to win this fight, and in order to have a chance I must be allowed to weigh as all fighters weigh nowadays."

$95 IN FINES
WERE ASSESSEDAgainst Newark Players for Yesterday's Trouble

SUSPENSIONS ARE ORDERED

Haval, Wratten, Snyder and Winters Were Fined.

And Indefinite Suspension Recommended by Bates for Haval and Wratten.

Lancaster, O., Aug. 29.—According to the reports in circulation here, the episode on the ball diamond at Eagle Park will cost the Newark club dearly before the trouble is settled, and it is probable that this afternoon's games will be forfeited or postponed, if Umpire Bates is allowed to umpire the games.

It is said that fines amounting to $95 were assessed on Newark players and that two of them have been suspended indefinitely and two others for three days. If this state of affairs really exists, the Newark team will be so badly crippled that it would be almost necessary for them to allow the games to go by forfeit.

Your correspondent was informed this morning that Umpire Bates assessed fines in the sum of $50 for Haval's assault, $25 for Wratten's part in the trouble, and $10 each for Snyder and Winters. In addition to these fines, it was stated that indefinite suspensions had been ordered for Third Baseman Wratten and Second Baseman Haval, and three days' suspension for Catcher Scottie Winters and Outfielder Snyder.

It is the opinion of the Lancaster people that the fines and suspensions are all very heavy except in Haval's case. Most of the fans here think that he should be put out of the game for good. He has always caused trouble on the local diamond.

Manager Snodgrass received orders from Newark last night instructing him to notify President Morton that the Newark team would not go on the diamond if Umpire Bates was permitted to officiate as umpire. The message was sent to President Morton. It was stated here this morning that President Morton considers the trouble so grave as to demand his presence in Lancaster and it was reported that he was on his way there. A long distance call was received at a local hotel for Morton, but he had not arrived in the city at noon.

Manager Snodgrass and Third Baseman Rafis engaged in an altercation after the two teams left the grounds yesterday afternoon and Rafis assaulted Snodgrass and made good his escape, running to his home where he remained during the night and all morning.

An effort was made to locate Umpire Bates this morning, but he could not be found. Inquiry was made at Bates' boarding house and it was stated there that he had not been seen last night. It is believed that he has gone out of the city.

Haval Fined by Mayor.
Second Baseman Haval was brought before Mayor Pursell last night and pleaded guilty to an assault on Bates. He was assessed a fine and costs amounting to $8.65. This amount was paid and Haval was allowed to go.

No Word From Morton.
No word has been received here from President Morton, so it is not known whether he has acted upon the suggestion of Umpire Bates in suspending the players or not. Both teams have gone to the ball diamond and it is thought the games will be played.

Official Standing
Now Given Out by Pres. Charles H. Morton and Printed by the Advocate Today.

The Advocate this morning received from President Morton the official standing of the O. P. league to date. There has been some considerable trouble all over the circuit about keeping the standing correctly, and no two of the papers used the same one. President Morton mailed to the Advocate the standing to and including Monday. With yesterday's games (Continued on page 7, 4th col.)

FROM SMILE LAND

BY RYAN WALKER.

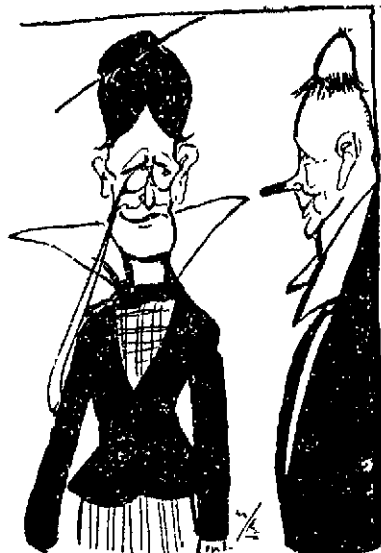

He Was Succeeding All Right.

Weeks—Well, Count, how do you like our language?

The Count—I like eet not von best. In such vot you call ze fact, I have ze language. Eet I could I would murder-r-r ze language!

Weeks—Well, don't worry, Count. You're succeeding all right.

The Old Story.

"And so their marriage turned out unhappily?"

"Yes; she was a hard ice cream soda drinker, and he married her to reform her."

The King (of the Mythical Kingdom)—You mean to say that it is impossible to get any more money out of my subjects?

The Prime Minister—Your Majesty ve tried SHRDLU DDootat ETAO I have taxed my ingenuity to the utmost.

The King—Then why don't you tax theirs?

A Change of Opinion.

"So they named a cigar after you?"

"Yes," (in dubious tones).

"Quite a compliment."

"I thought so till I smoked one of the cigars. Then I concluded that it was a libel."

Before the Ceremony.

The Count—And now everything is ready for my wedding with Mess Moneybags. I think every man will say I am faultlessly attired.

The Baron—Parbleu, mon ami! Considering ze nature of ze lady's attractions, I think it might be more appropriate if you wore a beezness suit.

Equal to the Emergency.

The Czar (8 a. m.)—What do you mean by waking me up at this time in the morning?

Valet—Pardon, sire, but the water pipes have burst and the ground floor of the palace is under water.

The Czar—Then bring me my admiral's uniform.

SPORTING GOSSIP

The game which was forfeited to Mansfield at Shelby several weeks ago when New Castle was to have played there, has been thrown out. The same was done with the Mansfield-Lancaster game which was forfeited to the Lanks because Carl McVey insisted on warming up a battery on the playing field.

With these changes all made the Advocate's standing is correct to the minute. It will be posted each evening in the window, after the changes are made following the games played each day.

MANSFIELD PLAYS HERE NEXT SUNDAY

Game Which Was to Have Been Played at Mansfield, Has Been Transferred to Newark.

Announcement was made this morning that the Newark-Mansfield game which was scheduled at Mansfield next Sunday, September 2, had been transferred to this city. The baseball company has succeeded in getting a rate of $1 for the round trip from Mansfield to Newark and promises a large crowd.

This is the second game which has been transferred from Mansfield. The ball company there has given up the idea of playing Sunday baseball at Mansfield this season.

PARISH CO'S TEAM WITHDRAWS FROM THE CITY LEAGUE

Manager Curtis Rowe of the Parish company team, gave notice to the president of the City League today that the Parish team would withdraw from the City League. At the same time he stated that he had been retained as manager of the Newark Liquor company's team and that the new team wanted to be taken into the league.

In order to insure the life of the City League it was decided to accept the new team. They have agreed to take the standing of the Parish team and also to play out the schedule of this club. In this way the league will go on in the same way without any trouble what ever.

Fourteen games have been played in the City League and six more remain to be played. This will necessitate a double header or two during the next month as it was arranged to close the season with the last Sunday in September.

The new team in the City League will play their first game against the Rutledge team at Idlewild park Sunday. All the members of the Newark Liquor company team are requested to communicate with Manager Rowe as soon as possible.

Wants Sunday Game Here. The sporting editor of the Advocate has received a letter from Manager Clyde Brentlinger of the C. A. & C. shop team of Mt. Vernon asking for a Sunday game with any amateur Newark team. A letter addressed to the manager at 812 East Front street, will reach the Mt. Vernon manager.

ENTHUSIASTIC IS PROF. SIMKINS

IN ENDORSING THE PRESIDENT'S ORDER FOR SIMPLIFIED SPELLING.

Believes Proper Channel for Introduction of Reform is Through Press of Country.

Superintendent J. D. Simkins of the Newark schools in talking with the Advocate Wednesday was enthusiastic in his approval of the movement of President Roosevelt toward the revision of the present system of spelling and stated that only Tuesday he had sent a letter of congratulation to the President on his stand regarding the introduction of the phonetic system. He stated that in his opinion the adoption of the system in the public schools of the land, including those of Newark, would be a matter of a comparatively short time, although the perfection of the system would probably take two or three hundred years.

Special instruction in the teaching of spelling prepared and delivered to the instructors of the eighth grades of the city schools by Prof. Simkins only a few months ago, dealt extensively with the subject of spelling reform now taken up by the President, and anticipated the movement in the following closing sentence of his letter: "The government might be induced to sanction the movement as has the governments of Germany, France, Italy and Spain, from time to time." Superintendent Simkins stated, however, that he believed that the proper channel for the introduction of the reform was through the press of the country which could in the national meetings introduce it in a way that would teach the people quicker and with better results.

The superintendent's letter is a compilation of very interesting statistics upon the subject of spelling reform. Its conclusion is a reluctant submission to the present system, well dressed in a flow of just satire in which he says:

"So, with no hope of immediate relief, place great stress on silent letters and on the 362 useless combinations. Tell the child that though spells tho; through, thru; and ph this; tistic. If his faith is equal to this, he will believe anything and you can proceed to drill on the 1300 other similar curiosities, 500 of which are in everyday use and are words of one syllable. No judgment being necessary on the part of the pupil, proceed as if teaching a parrot.

"With malice toward none, continue the endless task of drilling on the chaotic lodge-podge known as English spelling:

1. On the 13 ways of representing "long o": As in note, boat, toe, yoman, soul, row, sew, haut-boy, beau, owe, foot, oh, o.

2. On the 9 ways of representing "u" as heard in "rule": As in ruler, move, rood, routine, rheum, drew, shoe, rule, but used.

3. On the 9 ways of representing "long e": As in meet, mete, meat, machine, glee, receive, key, people, Aegis.

4. On the 6 ways of representing "short e": As in me, sweat, any, said, says, jeopard. It is bad enough for each sound to have so many representatives but worse than that, each "representative" may have several sounds as seen in the following:

5. On the 5 sounds of "ough": As in hiccough, though, thorough, thought, enough.

6. On the 5 sounds of "ea": As in heat, sweat, great, heart, heard.

7. On the 6 sounds of "ou": As in sou, pour, would, our, sought, couple.

On the 223 other useless combinations. Show that "scissors" can be spelled in 58,365,419 different ways by using permissible substitutes for the letters of that word."

Only a few of the advantages of simplified spelling given by Prof. Simkins serve to show what the reform would mean. In part they are as follows:

"The simpler forms would look queer for a month to those that can now read. It would take nine or ten minutes to change to the new method and learn it. We would have an use for a spelling book. We could pronounce new words without a dictionary. The book makers would lose money. A change would raise the dead phonetic sense of the English word and endow it with life and reason. Our whole vowel and consonant systems would be reduced from chaos to order and evident meaning. Our idiosyncrasy for silent letters would be soon swept away. The Hottentot might stupidly continue to howl to his gods of stone and wood but the Englishman would arise from foolish and selfish worship of his silent letter fetters. The spelling that many common people now use would then be correct. English would not be nearly as difficult to learn as Chinese. Spelling would be the easiest instead of the most difficult branch. Many a poor speller would not be dragged or driven to school for twelve years. The labors of the true and other and police court would be reduced. The history of a word would be better preserved than at present, for then letters would represent sounds, while now they represent nothing or any one of a dozen sounds. Letters could then be justified by their only excuse for being, viz., that of indicating and preserving the present pronunciation and meaning of words. We are more concerned in what a word means now than in what it meant a thousand years ago."

He concluded by saying that Gladstone, Wm. T. Harris, United States Commissioner of Education, Andrew Carnegie, Max Mueller, John Medill, Jane owner and editor of the Chicago Tribune, English and American Philological societies, nearly all great students of the English dictionary, and 150 others among the prominent men of England and America, are wrong if simplified spelling is not advisable.

Thirty years ago I made my first public appearance at the Centennial Exposition at Philadelphia. I was a stranger then. People took away specimens of my writing as curiosities. Today everybody knows me and these specimens fill the mail cars.

Every one of my thirty years has been a year of progress—both in quality and sales. The year 1906 is emphasizing my supremacy—my sales for the first quarter breaking all existing records.

Today I am the oldest and still the newest. Not that I was first am I best, but that I am best am I first. I am the product of the second generation of Remington artianship. My New Models represent the experience of the old combined with the progressiveness of the new. In my present form I embody all the qualities which have made me famous—plus improvements so fundamental as to create a new standard of typewriter work.

A GOOD BETWEEN N SEASON WRAP.

For the first few cool days when schooltime always brings some sort of coat or wrap that will not prove unduly heavy and warm is an imperative necessity. Since adult fashions distinctly lean to length in wraps, these for the juvenile follow suit. A design that will undoubtedly prove becoming to the majority of children, and is well within the limits of the family seamstress' skill is shown herewith. The material is one of those coarse and slightly open Scotch plaids that provide warmth without weight, several shades of gray, and a glint of green making the pattern. The coat is cut upon square lines, and added panels provide for the necessary fullness for all of the little maids' belongings display more of fullness in this season's skirts. A broad strap is brought from the back panel over the shoulder and seemingly fastens to the front one with button and a fancy braid loop. The sleeve is the regulation coat affair, while the velvet collar and cuff are decorated with rows of corn soutache. And, by the way, a hint to the mothers of freshly growing girls is afforded in the way in which the velvet cuff is applied. When the sleeves of a coat grow too short, as they oftentimes do all too soon in the game, the velvet cuff so applied and a hint of a collar to match will often make the coat serviceable for a few months more of that season and put off the inevitable purchase of a new one for just that long.

WOMEN CARRY GUNS AT MURDERED MAN'S BURIAL

Portsmouth, Aug. 29.—Bitter enmity between the wife of John Harr, one of Sunday's double murder victims, and Mrs. Marie Ferguson, a half sister, came near leading to bloodshed over the disposition of the body.

Mrs. Ferguson stood guard with a Winchester rifle, threatening to kill Mrs. Harr rather than permit her to view the corpse. Mrs. Harr started to enter, but friends compelled her to return. The women attended the funeral.

MR. PERRY WILES DIES IN ZANESVILLE

MT. VERNON IS NOW TALKING OF TROLLEY CONNECTION WITH GALLON, O.

Dr. Wells Will Resign—Visits Grave
and Dies—G. A. R. Anniversary—Nearby Towns.

Zanesville, Aug. 29—Perry Wiles aged 81, one of the best known wholesale grocers in southeastern Ohio, died at his home in this city yesterday. He served four years in the civil war and in 1865 he was Muskingum's county member of the Ohio legislature.

PROPOSED MT. VERNON ROAD.
Mt. Vernon, Aug. 29—Walter L. Ball, the well known electric railway promoter, says that the prospects for constructing the Gallon & Southern railway from Gallon to this city are flattering. Mr. Ball has numerous letters from prominent financial firms in the east, who wish to finance the road.

Mr. Ball has secured most of the right of way from Gallon to Mt. Vernon and with the promise of financial assistance he is firmly convinced that the road will be built at a very early date, possibly this fall.

DR. WELLS WILL RESIGN.
Coshocton, Aug. 29—Dr. Wells, pastor of the Methodist Protestant church, will not remain in Coshocton after the end of the present conference year. This decision comes as a result of a vote taken on the matter by the congregation Sunday.

VISITS GRAVE AND DIES.
Bucyrus, Aug. 29—Lewis B. Lyday, a pioneer resident of Bucyrus, but lately a resident of Texas, arrived in Bucyrus Sunday, visited the family graves in the cemetery and left Monday for his home. A telegram announced his death en route to Texas. Heart disease was the cause.

G. A. R. ANNIVERSARY.
Marysville, Aug. 29—The 25th anniversary of Ransom Reed Post, G. A. R., was appropriately observed last night. A history of the post was read by Colonel William L. Curry of Columbus, state commissioner of soldiers' claims, who was the first commander of the post.

KILLED IN FALL FROM MOWER.
Wooster, Aug. 29—Christian Shelley, agent, 69, the heaviest land owner in Wayne county, late Tuesday afternoon fell from a mowing machine and sustained injuries which caused his death in a few minutes.

HAND BLOWN OFF.
Mt. Vernon, Aug. 29—Clarence the 15 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Shannon Dowds had his right hand blown entirely off yesterday afternoon by the explosion of a toy cannon made of gas pipe and charged with dynamite. It is also believed that the boy's sight is destroyed.

A LUCKY ACCIDENT.
Mt. Vernon, Aug. 29—Carried on the pilot of an engine, seated in a buggy and escaping without a scratch was the wonderful experience of S. Brook Church, contractor, yesterday afternoon. Church was driving and attempted to cross in front of the locomotive. The engine struck the buggy containing Church and carried it 50 feet. The horse escaped when the engine hit the buggy.

LOCATION OF FEDERAL BUILDING

There is considerable speculation as to the probable location of the new government building here and opinion has been expressed that if a suitable site could not be selected within a certain length of time the measure making the appropriation for the erection of a postoffice here would be lost.

An Advocate reporter called upon the postal authorities here Wednesday with relation to this, and was told that a government official from the office of the supervising architect was expected in this city some time in the near future to look after the government's interests in the proposed new building, or at least in the selection of a site for it. Assistant Postmaster Siegfried stated that in case the bids were considered too high the matter might be dropped for the present, until a suitable site at more reasonable terms could be found, or the government could, if desired, condemn a certain property and have it appraised, purchasing it at the appraisal price. Under any conditions, Mr. Siegfried said, the measure would not be lost and Newark would get the building, although there might be some delay regarding it.

A sudden rise in the Appomattox river inundated the wharves at Petersburg, Va., and flooded a number of business houses in the lower section of the city.

Mr. F. Elliott, general counsel for the Standard Oil company, denies the rumor that that company has taken steps to acquire all the distilleries in the United States.

ALASKA ELECTS TWO MINERS DELEGATES

Frank N. Waskey

Thomas Cole

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 29—Alaska has elected two miners to seats in the House of Representatives as territorial delegates. They defeated the Republican and Democratic nominees in the elections last week by overwhelming majorities, and their election is looked upon as Alaska's protest against broken promises by the national government and neglect of her interests and opposition to wealthy corporations.

The new delegates are Thomas Cole, elected by 3,331 plurality for the long term, and Frank Waskey, who received 2,985 majority, for the short term. Cole is a native of Wisconsin, is known as "Honest Tom" in Fairbanks, his home town, and has been a miner since 1897.

Frank Waskey was told of his nomination in the shaft of one of his mines while at work. He is 33 years old, is a Minnesotan, and his home is at Nome. He is energetic and knows the needs of Alaska. He is known as a "trail blazer" there, which interpreted means a man who accomplishes what he sets out to do.

An instance of the neglect of Alaska's interests is the matter of history that that year the Alaskans had to take up a collection among themselves to hire officials in the postoffice service on account of the insufficient appropriation granted them by the government for this purpose. And they had to do the same thing again this year, although the matter had been brought to the attention of the government officials, without avail. Port scandals in which federal officials have been involved in Alaska also had a part in determining the election.

NEWARK LEADS IN 6th INNING IN TODAY'S GAME

THIEVES MAKE BIG BAIL

How many times have you seen the above headline, or a similar one, in your daily newspaper? Pretty often, for the danger of loss by burglary or theft is an ever present one. In two recent months the number of burglaries and robberies in eight cities was 2475—over 40 each day. Three have occurred in Newark within the last week. These figures show the alarming frequency of such affairs. Often the articles taken are heirlooms, valuable jewels or plate, and the loss is a serious one. The summer vacation is upon us, and sneak thieves are busy with their depredations. Think how much better you would feel if you could go away with the knowledge that if your house SHOULD be robbed, in your absence some one would make good your loss. You can procure that feeling of absolute security for only $12.50 per year. May our representative call? The Buckeye Insurance Agency Company, 10 N. U. S. RECRUITING STATION HERE

Chief Master-at-Arms P. B. Golden of the United States Navy, who is acting as advance agent for one of the Naval recruiting parties now scouring the country for young men, was in Newark Wednesday making arrangements for the arrival of his party on September 19.

The government is making a big effort to recruit a large number of conscripts for the navy. There is a big demand for recruits now that a large number of battleships and cruisers are just being put into commission.

Mr. Golden states that all applicants must be American citizens between the ages of 17 and 37 years. Their pay is $16 to $70 per month for ordinary recruits while mechanics can draw from $20 to $70.

Lieut. J. H. Comfort and Dr. C. K. Winn, a naval officer, will have charge of the local recruiting station. After the applicants are accepted they will be sent to Norfolk, Va., where the naval training station is located. They will be in training for four months after which they are granted a ten days' leave of absence. They are then put into service and assigned to their ship.

Mr. Golden stated that three new battleships and four new cruisers are being placed in commission and all these will need men before they can be put into service. The navy has a large number of men under contract for a year or more, and it is expected that a large number of them will be sent to the training station.

TO REBUILD TOWNS

President Riesco Believes All Villages
Destroyed by Quake Will be Restored.

Santiago, Chile, Aug. 29—President Riesco expressed the belief that all the villages and towns of Chile destroyed by the recent earthquake will be rebuilt on their old sites. The Chilean people, the president said, will always be grateful for the generosity and self-denial of the foreign colonies in Chile, and particularly of the Italians at the moment of the disaster. President Riesco said the electric light system would soon be in operation in Valparaiso and that the city would speedily establish the tramway service and that the customs service would soon be reorganized. He promised that before long the courts would resume their sittings.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

MRS. MARGARET SEARS.
Mrs. Margaret Sears, aged 80 years died Tuesday at noon at the home of her nephew, J. L. Corson, at Mt. Sterling, death being due to the infirmities that accompanied her advanced years. INSULT TO NATION SAYS PROF. ZUEBLIN.

Richmond, Ind., Aug. 29—"The mention of the name of Joseph Cannon in connection with the presidency is an insult to the nation," said Prof. Charles Zueblin of the University of Chicago, in an address here. He said that no other speaker had ever had control of the House as Cannon. He referred to the power exercised by former Speaker Reed, but said that Cannon's control of legislation was of a different type. "It is a reflection on the American Congress that a man of his habits and standing should have such great power in its legislation," declared Dr. Zueblin.

NEWARK IS TO HAVE NEW BAND

IT WILL MAKE APPEARANCE FOR FIRST TIME HERE ON LABOR DAY.

New Organization Plans to Give Concerts on Public Square in the Near Future.

Newark is to have a new, permanent band. The new organization will make its first appearance on Labor Day when the full 15 pieces will furnish music for the celebration here. The band will be under the direction of Mr. Will Reynolds and following Labor Day will continue rehearsals in a select line of concert music, playing programs of a thoroughly up to date nature, including, of course, enough of the popular style to please. The new organization will be composed of the following well known local musicians: Frank Reynolds, Robert Dold, Nelson Kibler, Will Morgan, Fred Simpson, Roy Shirer, Ed. Coyne, Walter Deeser, Ralph Johnson, Charles and Grea Daly, Charles Mahom, Nesbit Davis, Virgil Green, Charles Metz, Jacob Stock, Nicholas Snyder and Will Reynolds, conductor. The band will give a concert on the public square in the near future, according to the plans.
